Dear Mr. Waite:

Your letter arrived during my husband's absence on a trip which will carry him cross-country to California in connection with the last book, OSWALD IN NEW ORELANS.

This is just by way of telling you that he will reply as soon as he has an opportunity, but not to expect an answer very soon because he will not be home until Thanksgiving at the earliest.

I was quite pleased to see by this morning's paper that Mr. Specter lost out.

Many thanks for your good wishes.

Sincerely,

Lillian Weisberg
